

Adoration and Benediction

Every Thursday we have Adoration following morning mass, with the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament all day until the Benediction in the evening. You are invited to come and spend some time with our Lord, as much as you are able. We would like to increase the attendance for Benediction, so if it is possible, please attend the Benediction at 6:45pm. It is a beautiful ending to your day.

We remember in prayer our parishioners whose anniversaries occur during May: Sydney Smith, Angus Hally, Michael O'Shea, Marcella Alward, John Barr, Grace MacDonald, Robert Petrie, Ven Alward, Br Cosmos Noonan CSsR, Gladys Stone, William Gosrdon

OFFICE RELOCATION

Work on the new office will commence on Monday, May 10 and builders will be onsite from 7.30am to 6pm, Monday to Friday. They will not work over weekends.

Based on a pre-construction discussion, it is anticipated work will have a minimal impact on the normal flow of Parish activities. There will be construction noise and mess, but the Church and Parish Rooms will remain accessible, and the builder is conscious of the need to keep noise to a minimum during weekday Mass or other religious services.

The regular morning tea after weekday Mass will need to relocate to the Parish Rooms (if possible) or be suspended during the construction phase.

The office will continue to operate during construction from its existing location.

Construction is expected to be completed by the end of May, except for replacing the existing exit door with glass. Fabrication hold ups will see this part of construction being undertaken in June.

There will be some disruption, and all will need to be conscious of health and safety issues when onsite. Please be patient and vigilant.

If you have any concerns about health and safety during construction, or would like additional information please contact Dennis Lynch (021 963 733).

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Our members have been busy delivering food parcels and visiting people in homes and hospitals.

On behalf of members and the recipients of your generosity, we are most grateful for your help.

This has been significant with increased weekly food donations and cash donations in the St. Vincent de Paul boxes at our Church. Working both directly with parishioners and in conjunction with Te Waipuna Mercy Oasis we are distributing to over 80 family homes.

Thank you for your ongoing support which makes these works possible.

We remember you all in our prayers.
